Description:

Inspired by the breathtaking views of Limassol, Acrotiri Bay and beyond, this new residential complex brings an unmistakably contemporary edge to uptown living amidst the residential buildings on the hills of Panthea in Limassol. The building's glazed façade is an architectural highlight. The interior design itself is paired with high-end finishes to offer residents every convenience along with a host of brilliantly contemporary luxuries.

Apartments in this complex include spacious, elegantly proportioned floor plans that have been designed with finishes and features that speak to modern tastes. In addition to wooden floors and Italian-designed kitchens, all residences offer the comfort of large double-glazed doors and windows opening onto the oversized covered terraces. Select residences feature private gyms and cinema rooms, children's playrooms, expansive terraces and roof-gardens with extraordinary views of Limassol, the Acrotiri Bay, the salt lake and beyond.
