Description:

Introducing a beautifully maintained and recently refreshed two-bedroom apartment, offering an exceptional blend of comfort, quality construction, and modern living. Situated within a quiet residential building, this property provides remarkable proximity to essential amenities while ensuring privacy and convenience.

Located just a short walk from the coastline and with immediate access to major road networks, this apartment allows for effortless movement while avoiding daily traffic. Supermarkets, bakeries, pharmacies, and cafés are all within comfortable walking distance, making everyday living smooth and efficient.

The residence has been fully repainted indoors and furnished with brand-new furniture, including premium memory foam mattresses that guarantee restful sleep. The bright interior opens onto a spacious veranda with captivating views of the sea and city skyline.

One of the property's standout features is the private roof terrace. Designed as a serene retreat, it offers expansive panoramic views and includes a private jacuzzi — an ideal spot to unwind and enjoy the peaceful surroundings.

This apartment is an excellent choice for both residential living and investment purposes, combining strategic proximity, quality construction, and a modern refreshed finish.
