Description:

Set within an intimate, contemporary residential development of just five apartments, this one-bedroom home offers a rare blend of privacy, practicality, and modern urban comfort. Designed with clean architectural lines and a smart, well-balanced layout, the apartment is filled with natural light and arranged to make everyday living effortless.

The building spans only three storeys, creating a quiet, low-density environment where quality and a sense of exclusivity are immediately felt. Finishes are chosen for durability and style, while the overall design focuses on calm interiors, efficient use of space, and a modern lifestyle.

With everyday amenities close at hand and easy access to main routes and the coastline, this property suits both owner-occupiers seeking a refined city base and investors looking for strong long-term appeal. A well-considered home that feels both contemporary and timeless.
