Description:

Set within a discreet, modern three-storey development of just five residences, this contemporary three-bedroom apartment offers the rare combination of privacy, refined design, and everyday practicality. Clean architectural lines, generous natural light, and a well-considered layout create a calm urban home that feels both polished and welcoming.

The interior is planned for comfortable daily living, with clearly defined spaces that suit families, professionals, or those seeking a high-quality city base. Quality finishes and a boutique scale add long-term value, while the low-density setting ensures a more peaceful residential atmosphere.

With immediate access to schools, shops, dining, and essential services, the apartment is also positioned for excellent convenience and strong rental appeal, making it a smart choice for both owner-occupiers and investors.
